Scholarship

The Centre des Premières Nations Nikanite and its partners are setting up "School Perseverance for First Peoples" scholarship funds 2017-2018 to highlight perseverance of First Peoples students.

The scholarships are intended for Secondary 4 and Secondary 5 students. A scholarship will be awarded to deserving students from each of the 11 autochthonous nations to encourage their progress and their daily efforts throughout their school careers.

The deadline to send applications is May 11, 2018. The finalists will appear in the 3rd edition of the Journal of Perseverance and Academic Success for First Peoples, which will be published next December. Please see Mr. Khan in the Guidance area if you wish to apply.

Attention All Grad artists

We are looking for designs for the cover of the 2018 Convocation ceremony pamphlet. If you would like to submit a cover design (Lindsay Place/Graduation theme, black & white, 5.5 inches wide X 8.5 inches high) please drop it off at the main office with Mrs. Donnelly by Friday, April 13. You can add a back cover design if you choose also.

If you have any questions, feel free to ask Mrs. Donnelly in the main office or Mrs. Tighe in the Art department.

Course de la Compassion

The West Island Palliative Care Residence will be holding its 2nd annual Course de la Compassion on Saturday, May 12 at Valois Park.

They are looking for students/students teams who would be available to help out as volunteers or be one of the “cheer stations” along the course which will be passing by LPHS. A prize will be offered to the winning station.

Additional information about the event can be found on their website:
