Day 6

Spring Concerts

Stay tuned for the senior concert coming this Thursday at 7pm. It will be full of amazing musical selections and sure to be a crowd pleaser!

Samosa Sale

SAMOSASALE FUNDRAISER! This Thursday, May 10, in the main lobby starting at 1:15pm. The cost is $1.00 per samosa.

All funds raised will go to the WELCOME FIRE PROGRAM - The Native Women's Shelter.

Shave for the cause

Attention LPHS! Ryan Thomas is shaving his head for charity! It's all happening this Thursday, May 10th in the main lobby. For every loonie raised, a lock of Ryan's hair will be cut. Your Loonie will also enter you in a draw to win 5 FREE samosas! The skill testing question? Guess the weight of Ryan's total hair clippings! Closest guess will walk away with 5 FREE samosas!

All funds raised will go toward the Native Women's Shelter- Welcoming Fire Program. So come on out and watch Ryan shed his golden locks, all in support of a truly important cause!

Community Service

To all students who did community service hours, do not forget to hand in your booklets to get credit for all you do!

Youth Stars Foundation

Youth Stars Foundation, a non-profit who uses the arts, dance and sports to motivate youth and promote healthy living habits will have a kiosk at LPHS on Wednesday during lunch informing students of their hiring counsellor in training for their summer camp.

More information is posted in the Guidance area.
