

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
Tuesday, December 8
Day 4

Sec.5 students are online today

Sec. 3 students, bubble classes 334 and 335 are online today

Holiday Jar guessing game

We have a winner of the first holiday Candy guess game!

The winner, from room 214, had the winning guess for the number of candies in the jar. Congratulation

Someone will be delivering your prize this morning! Don't forget to participate in the second week which starts today!

HR teachers please add the link in your classrooms for the next Holiday Candy Guess week 2!

Guidance

A reminder to all Secondary 5 students that Ms. Lana has started to schedule appointments to explore post-secondary plans.

All appointments are scheduled by email, and will be in-person OR via Zoom, depending on the schedule. It is important that you check your LBPearson emails regularly, so you do not risk missing your appointment time.

Library Books

Library books can be returned into the box outside the main office.

LGBTQ +

The West Island LGBTQ + organization is offering both online and drop-in support groups for Gay and Trans youth from 13 to 20 years old, every Wednesday and Friday. Please go to their website for the schedule.

HOLIDAY CARD MAKING contest

Handmade holiday cards are needed for our holiday giving campaign. Here is the plan...

Make a happy, funny, or traditional holiday greeting cards, bring them to the main office and enter you name into a draw to win a Tim Horton's gift card.

DROP IN THE BUCKET TOONIE

Every drop in the bucket helps!!! This Friday and next Monday we will be having a DROP IN THE BUCKET TOONIE drive to raise money for our holiday food drive to help support our families.

Please drop you toonie into the bucket as you enter the school and be a part of the gift that keeps on giving.

No obligation and thank you for your generosity.

Families Helping Families

Families Helping Families has long been a tradition at Lindsay Place. This year more than ever is no exception.

There are posters around the school with the QR code. Scan and donate directly from your phones.

Thank you for supporting Lindsay Place families who could use a little extra help this holiday season. The deadline is this Friday, December 11.

GO EAGLES!!!