Day of Remembrance in Honour of Covid 19 victims: The Government of Quebec has designated Thursday, March 11, 2021 as a Day of Remembrance in honour of the victims of COVID-19. More than half of the deaths related to the coronavirus in Canada have occurred in Quebec alone, a somber reminder of the toll the pandemic has taken. Premier Legault has asked that all public buildings lower their flags to half-mast on March 11th. In addition, all Quebecers are being invited to observe a moment of silence at 1:00 p.m. on March 11th to commemorate those affected by COVID-19.
